

Status: In deep development

Proxy Click is a desktop application that uses MySQL database for storing http proxies and perform a request through them to a given url. Once the request is send the proxy status is set to "used" and it is never used again for any following request. This application can be used for debugging or just for generating custom requests to any server over internet hiding your ip from the server side but be ware to use only anonymous proxy servers.

Sourceforge link

Doxygen documentation

